

NDR Limited Submissions Internal Competition

The NCI Predoctoral to Postdoctoral Fellow Transition Award (F99/K00)

<https://grants.nih.gov/grants/guide/rfa-files/RFA-CA-22-041.html>

(FAQ link) <https://www.cancer.gov/grants-training/training/funding/f99/f99-k00-fact-sheet>

Note: The applicant must have a baccalaureate degree and be currently enrolled as a graduate student in the third or fourth year of a mentored Ph.D. in the biomedical, behavioral, or clinical sciences. The applicant must be at the dissertation research stage of training at the time of award, and must show evidence of high academic performance in the sciences and commitment to a career as an independent cancer research scientist.

Prepare the following information into one PDF document and send it to limited@nd.edu by 11:59 PM Eastern September 6, 2022. Name your document PISurname_NCIFellow_2022.pdf

Your document should include:

1. NIH Biosketch for the Sponsor/Mentor at Notre Dame
2. Current and Pending funding for the Sponsor/Mentor at Notre Dame
3. NIH Biosketch for the Applicant – NIH Fellowship Format
4. Current and Pending funding for the Applicant
5. Electronic copy of statement below with Applicant's signature.

I agree to submit my official transcripts as part of an application of an internal competition for Notre Dame Research and understand that this educational information will be viewed by University of Notre Dame faculty and staff during 2022 and 2023.

SIGNATURE:

PRINTED OR TYPED NAME:

DATE:

6. Electronic copy of official undergraduate transcript for the Applicant
7. Electronic copy of official graduate transcript for the Applicant
8. Abstract of proposed F99 research and brief discussion of K00 research (up to one page).

Current NIH biosketch instructions are below.

<https://grants.nih.gov/grants/forms/biosketch.htm>

University of Notre Dame FERPA regulations are below.

https://policy.nd.edu/assets/283326/ferpa_08.01.2018.pdf